PREFACE.

It will be observed that this issue of the MELROSE DIRECTORY, No. 14 in the regular series, bears a new imprint, viz., the LITTLEFIELD DIRECTORY PUBLISHING COMPANY. The work, however, has not changed hands. It will still be compiled and published by MR. ELMER LITTLEFIELD, for many years co partner in the firm of W. A. GREENOUGH & Co. We hardly need to remind the people of MELROSE that the expense attending the publication of a small Directory is proportionately heavier than for a large one. We feel justified, therefore, in asking for this book a more generous support and patronage, by way of advertising and subscribing. While not disposed to complain of past treatment in these respects, we hope that the people will do their very utmost to insure for their beautiful town a biennial DIRECTORY, exclusively their own.

Our usual acknowledg ments are hereby tendered to all who have aided us in the compilation of the present number.

STREET DIRECTORY,

Giving the location of each street, and showing what other streets and places run from it or across it, with the number at which they intersect.

From this list the location of any number on a street can be easily ascertained; as, for instance, wishing to know at what part of Grove street No. 265 comes, you look at Grove street and find that Faxon street crosses at 251 and Meridian street at 277 showing that 265 Grove street would come about half way between Faxon and Meridian streets.
